

Chris is a Pastoral Assistant and member of the Parish Council who also chairs council meetings on behalf of the Rector. He retired to Denmark with his wife Sally after serving for 32 years in the Australian Army. He saw active service in South Vietnam as a tank troop leader, commanded the Second Cavalry Regiment as a Lieutenant Colonel, commanded a sector of the UN cease-fire line in Iran and was the Australian Defence Attaché to the United Nations in New York as a Colonel. On leaving the Army he and Sally moved to the UK for seven years where they owned and ran a 17th century country guesthouse in mid -Wales.
