

CURSILLO NEWS FLASH

November 2011

The Bunbury Diocesan Secretariat met in Kojonup on 15th November and highlights included:

- Highveld. Please pray for the teams and participants for the W1/M1 in the Highveld in May 2012.
- Please continue to pray for Sue Truell (Lay Director) and Karon Austin (Spiritual Director) as they prepare for W7 in July 2012.
- Cursillo Secretariat mission – ‘To encourage believers in their Christian walk.’ Pray for the Secretariat as they review their roles and develop strategies to ensure that Christians are encouraged and supported in their relationship with the Lord in the 4th Day in their local communities.
- Lay Director and Spiritual Director Positions. It has been resolved that from February 2012 the shared Lay Director and Spiritual Director positions will be abolished. It is proposed that the appointment to the Lay Director and Spiritual Director positions will be for four years.
- New Day – Tricia has just circulated her first edition of New Day and would welcome feedback about the new format.
- A banner is being developed for Cursillo in the Highveld by Ellen Hickman and Joy Cobb, two new Cursillistas from Albany. A big thank you to Ellen for the artwork and Joy for her needlework expertise.
- Diocesan Ultreya – this will be held in Bunbury on Saturday, 11th February, 2012. Please put this date in your diary. Further details will be circulated nearer the date.
- Vince Cooney is establishing a small men’s subcommittee to consider ways in which the Cursillo resources and opportunities for the men to get together can be presented in a way which will reach a greater number of men in the church.

PLEASE CONTINUE TO PRAY FOR THE CURSILLO MOVEMENT
